Delivery arrangements

This qualification can ideally be delivered over a minimum 11 month period using a blend of on and off the job approaches. We combine group learning sessions with self-directed reading, summative assessment projects and research activities that combined we have allowed up to 135 hours in total for Certificate III level. The qualification can be fast-tracked, depending on current competencies of learner as well as their available time in completing the requirements. For learners completing the qualification via traineeship arrangements, we have set a minimum of 22 hours of face-to-face group training sessions for Certificate III. In this way learners can learn from each other while being guided by the experienced facilitator.

This qualification can be completed via any of these pathways as follows. We offer flexibility with this qualification.

RPL: If you have skills and experience to meet all the competencies of any unit/s, and can demonstrate/document that competency, then you may apply for RPL (recognise prior learning). Please contact our office for more details of this assessment-only process and an application form. Learners should allow 135 hours to complete the qualification in this format; however, this is assuming that they are able to provide sufficient and current evidence.

Use questioning and active listening to ascertain and respond to customer needs to ensure customers enjoy a positive experience that reflects store values.
Seek information on new technologies

Work collaboratively with other team members, supporting the team, respecting and understanding others' views and giving and receiving feedback in the context of a retail customer service environment where employees are expected to perform individual tasks but also look for opportunities to assist others.

Accept opportunities to learn new ways of doing things and implement changes under instruction within the context of store procedures

Plan daily work tasks and priorities within the context of the job role to achieve outcomes within set timelines

Use point-of-sale systems and/or select and use a range of other retail technology.

Group sessions: There may be a number of people in your organisation that can come together for a series of training sessions in your workplace, or an agreed alternate location. We have an 11 session ideal structure for Certificate III however the amount of time face-to-face can be discussed and agreed depending on the current competencies of the participants and viability of them coming together. This involves a combination of summative and formative assessments that include research, written tasks and demonstration activities.

Flexible: It may not be possible or preferential to co-ordinate face-to-face sessions so we can also assist you through the qualification via post, email and phone support. Learners should allow up to 135 hours regardless.

Blended Approach: You may prefer a combination of face-to-face sessions supported by email support and telephone conferencing. We can structure a program by incorporating all of these options.
